AFFORDABLE HOUSING OPTIONS

There are two basic types of affordable housing available to seniors in Wake County:

1. Subsidized housing, also called public housing: Rent is based on a percentage of income (usually 30% after allowing for certain deductions). A government subsidy pays the rest of the rental cost. This type of housing does not accept Section 8 housing vouchers.

2. Affordable housing, sometimes called tax credit properties: Rents for a given size of unit may be the same for all residents, or there may be two or more levels, or tiers, of pricing depending on income. These rents are typically lower than market-rate because the developers receive a tax credit. This type of housing does accept Section 8 housing vouchers, but it is up to the individual property as to whether or not they will accept them.

Some complexes are for seniors only, so they have a minimum age requirement (such as age 55+ or age 62+). In many cases only one member of the household needs to meet the age requirement (a younger spouse or family member may live there as well). Ask the property manager to verify this for a particular property. Other properties are open to people of all ages.

Eligibility for both subsidized and affordable housing is based on income. The applicant’s income must be below a set limit in order to qualify; limits are usually based on the median (middle) income for the county, and change each year. Most properties use either 50% or 60% of the median income as their maximum eligibility limit. There is often a minimum income requirement as well as a maximum income limit. Assets (such as savings or investments) may be considered as a source of income.

Please note: The demand for low-income housing in Wake County exceeds the supply. Most complexes have waiting lists of a year or more. It is not impossible to find an affordable apartment in Wake County, but it will require patience.

If at all possible, plan ahead and begin looking well in advance of when you need to move. We understand that the search process can be time-consuming and frustrating. Here are some tips:

- Get on as many waiting lists as possible, as soon as possible. Applying at several properties may increase your chances of finding an apartment sooner than expected.
- Most properties will offer to mail an application to you, if you are unable to fill one out on-site or access one online.
- When calling properties you may often get an answering machine instead of a live voice. Leave a message. The manager will return your call.

The following information was correct to the best of our knowledge when this list was last updated, but verify by calling the properties you are interested in. Rents and income limits may change.
